Largest Circulation in the District

Reading Matter on Every Page.

WASHINGTON CITY: WEDNESDAY February 26, 1873.

A subscriber writes:-"1 get my paper at least two hours later than I did three years ago; carrier?" In reply to our correspondent, we would say that we really go to press sooner than we did three years ago; and, also, our presses are run very much faster than they were three years ago. Yet, with our best exertions to get the edition off seasonably, the delivery is later than we could wish, for the reason that within three years the circulation of THE STAR has more than trebled. We do not state this in the way of idle boast, for it is a matter of easy verification by our books, and paper-makers, but simply by way of explanation why it is that so much more time is required to work off the paper. We are taking steps, however, that we trust will prove effective in so expediting the work of issuing THE STAR as to satisfy all reasonable expectations. The vastly preponderating circulation of THE STAR over its cotemporaries is an anomaly, we believe, in journalism, presenting the only instance probably in the world where an afternoon paper distances its morning cotemporaries in circulation and ad-

Gen. Chipman's Assessment Bill. Considerable apprehension is being felt lest the bill to extend the time of payments for special assessments for improvements in the District should fail of passage at the present ession of Congress. We are advised, however, that the bill as finally perfected, is so drawn that the legislative assembly of the District may pass it if Congress should not. The object of the bill is to authorize the sinking fund commissioners to issue bonds in lieu of the assessment certificates. These certificates are to be deposited with the District authorities, and are the security for the bonds, which are to be sold and their proceeds paid to the Board of Public Works. The bill extends the time of payment of certificates four years, at ten per cent. interest, but they may be paid at any time. As fast as paid the bonds are to be retired. Gen. Chipman struck out that clause of the bill which pledges the credit of the District, and made the assessment certificates the sole security for the bonds. This overcomes the objection that the bill creates an additional debt to the District, and thus relieves the property-holders and enables the board to make their collections and to meet expenses.

The Washington Monument.

The select House committee of thirteen on the Washington monument, Gen. N. P. Chipman chairman, finding it impossible to get the door this session, on account of the great pressure of other public business, have addressed a letter to the committee on appropriations of the Senate, stating that the honor of the nation demands of Congress some aid towards the completion of the monument by the approaching centennial, and asking that committee to report an amendment to the Senate to the miscellaneous appropriation bill, appropriating $200,000, to be expended under the direction of the President of the United States, after having first caused an examination to be made of the foundation of the monument. The select committee are satisfied that with this aid the society could readily raise sufficient funds to complete the monument. There is no doubt that a large majority in both the Senate and the House favor such an appropriation, and we hope it may be made.

Senator Pomeroy is certainly succeeding in making a much better defence than seemed possible when the first news of the circumstances of his defeat for the Senatorship came over the wires. The testimony, for one thing, has developed a thoroughly unscrupulous conspiracy to defeat him. As one of the witnesses called by the prosecution states, or admits, "the anti-Pomeroy men were ready to go any length to carry their point." To be sure, this witness bears the suspicious name of Rohrbacker, and he does not appear to bear the best reputation; but all the evidence, both for prosecution and defence, goes to confirm his statement in this

In the next place, the statement of Pomerov in regard to the purpose for which this money was placed in York's hands-i. e., to carry out a promise to furnish that amount to J. Q. Page and associates to start a national bank at Independence-supplies a theory of the transaction consistent with Mr. Pomeroy's innocence, of unexpected coherence and strength. And this statement seems to be backed up by several witnesses, whose testimony so far has not been impeached. There is no doubt that Mr. Pomeroy's reputation as an astute electioneering tactitian has served to give color to the idea that he might have undertaken "to fight the devil with fire" in the desperate strategy of the Kansas Senatorial election, but the run of the testimony so far has undoubtedly tended to create a favorable impression in his behalf. For one thing, he has had the aid of a singularly cool, keen and able lawyer, this Mr. Horton, who has appeared for him before the investigating committee. He has not only managed the cause of his client with great skill, but his cross-examination of the witnesses for the prosecution, while peculiarly quiet in style has been exceedingly damaging to that side.

The Cuban refugees in New York refuse to take stock in the Spanish republic, and have issued a manifesto giving their reasons for their want of faith in the stability of republican institutions in Old Spain. They say there is no powerfully and beneficially. The feeble should take middle term in the question between Cuba and | at least one dose daily at all seasons of the year; and her ancient mother country. The Cubans ask | it may be taken with great benefit twice a day by all for nothing from her, and hope for nothing from her; and if in four years of an atrocious and desolating war neither military Spain nor monarchical Spain has been able to conquer the insurrection, or to induce the Cuban patriots to change their purpose, much less will republican Spain be able to attain either the one or the other object, especially as she announces the same policy as her predecessors, and being herself the fruit of a surprise, the daughter of an obvious usurpation, she is weaker than they were, and lives only upon the evanescent warmth supplied by her visionary founders who, in respect to the masses of the nation, are in a smaller minority than ever. Believing, therefore, that they faithfully interpret the sentiments and opinions of the entire mass of their fellow-citizens, as well of those who have emigrated as of those who remain in Cuba in the ranks of the patriots, or in districts controlled by the enemy, they publish the present manifesto declaring their firm adhesion to the insurrection, or to induce the Cuban patriots to manifesto declaring their firm adhesion to the republic proclaimed at Guaimaro on the 10th of April, 1869, and affirming before the world, "in the most solemn and formal manner, that it is their fixed, unchangeable, and final purpose to labor even if it should be necessary to reduce it to ashes and to immolate the last Cuban."

THE NAVY YARD BRIDGE .- Both the Senate and House committees on the District of Columbia have recommended an appropriation for building a new iron bridge at the present site of the Anacostia bridge, and the matter has been brought to the attention of the Senate and House committee on appropriations. It is believed that these committees favor the measures, and that the miscellaneous appropriation bill will be amended to include an item for this purpose. The present structure is fast decaying and will soon have to be rebuilt. The government owns much more property on the south side of the river than the citizens. The insane asylum and Forts Foote and Washington get their supplies over this bridge. It is by far the most important bridge in the District and should be rebuilt in a substantial man-

Our school-teachers and trustees are scratching their heads to-day in considerable discomfitment over a problem put to them by the Board of Health in the following resolution adopted

"All school officers, trustees, and teachers "All school officers, trustees, and teachers thereof are hereby ordered and forbidden to receive into and allow to attend any school, public or private, within the District of Columbia, any pupil not vaccinated according to the rules, regulations, and orders of the Board of Health."

They seem to be ordered and forbidden to do the same thing. The question before the schoolhouse is whether the unvaccinated are to be received or turned out under the new rule.

MAN BASY WAY TO HEALTH.

The appetite is generally keener in winter than in summer, but the same low temperature which begetan increased desire for food is apt to decrease the ability of the stomach to digest it. The most aggravated cases of acute dyspepsia occur at this season: and the best, in fact, the only way, to control and cure them, is to stimulate and tone the stomach and invigorate and regulate the secretive and discharging organs. To do this promptly, safely and thoroughly (without involving any change in the ordinary habits of the invalid) a course of Hestetter's Stomach Bitters will be necessary. In order to accomplish a radical cure of indigestion, it is not enough to influence the organs of digestion. The liver, the intestines, the circulation, every organ and every secretion concerned in the work of assimilating the food and in carrying off the waste matter of the system, must be brought into a natural condition. Upon all these portions of the living machinery, the great vegetable medicine, which stands at the head of all modern restoratives, acts who are predisposed to dyspepsia, bilionsness or nervous attacks. Ladies will find it a very present help in the latter class of complaints, and, indeed, in all the ailments incident to the sex. f 24-eo3t& W

THIS HAS BEEN AN EXTRAORDINARY SEVERE SEASON COUGHS, COLDS. BRONCHIAL AFFECTIONS,

Mrs. Jones' Cough Mixture
has been hailed by the hundreds who have so successfully used it, as the best Cough remedy yet introduced. Patients with premonitory symptoms of Consumption have used it with great success, and its demand has steadily increased. In every case, either a cold and cough, or severe cases, where other remedies have been used and failed, it has given satisfaction. Indeed, such has been its praise by the afflicted, that we are warranted in recommending it to all as a safe and sure medicine, easily administered, pleasant to the taste, producing no nausea or other unpleasant effects, and certain to give satisfaction.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

In the New York money market yesterday, exorbitant rates for call loans were maintained, the stock brokers paying 1-32a1-16 per day commission in addition to 7 per cent. per annum. The large dealers in government bonds quoted the market 7a7 gold. The high rates now prevailing are in great part due to the existence of the usury law, for the repeal of which this winter no hope is entertained. Mercantile paper is dull, and approved names are held at 8 to 12 per cent. Government bonds were dull and steady, and the syndicate people denied the reports that the syndicate was to be reorganized.
